Cincinnati black-owned fashion company Drea Labelle, LLC enhances your shopping experience Drea Labelle, LLC, owned by Andrea Bryant, is a Cincinnati black-owned fashion design business that specializes in custom clothing for women with unique styles. Most of the time, women go to the store with an idea of what they want. At times, they may find it but it is not perfect. Their mission is to alleviate the store shopping experience and to customize exactly what you are looking for. Drea Labelle, LLC's collection ranges from girls clothing and accessories to women's clothing, accessories and formal wear. Most of all, it includes wedding and formal occasions for all cultures. Also, Drea Labelle, LLC especially welcomes curvier and petite body types due to the high demand. In June 2018, this Cincinnati black-owned fashion design company will have a line of custom shoes to add to their accessories and woman's clothing line. In addition, at least three items from each clothing line is created from a very unique, handpicked lace from various places around the world. Drea Labelle, LLC is located in the heart of the business district of Cheviot. Their warming office will be sure to make you feel at home. The founder has a unique taste and style.
