GiGi s Kitchen was created by my Grandmother who was affectionately known to all as GiGi. My Grandmother served and opened her kitchen to many people who were in need of a good meal. She was a great cook, but it was her rolls that gave her fame. It was always a dream of our family to provide a way for everyone to experience her famous Rolls. In 2009, we began selling GiGi s Rolls to local businesses in Cincinnati. However, due to life events our dreams were put on hold. In 2016, with a new vision and determination our family is able to provide an opportunity to bring our Rolls to your dinner table. Our rolls have been crafted to perfection over the many years and we are excited for you to try! With new products in development we decided to change our name to GiGi s Kitchen, in hopes to capture the very best just like our GiGi.
