Black-owned bakery Sweet as “Bea” desserts decorates your cakes perfectly for each occasion. Sweet as “Bea” Desserts is a Cincinnati Black-owned bakery located in Cincinnati, Ohio. Based out of her home, Bria Howard, Owner and CEO, was initially inspired to start the home base business as a high-school student after the passing of her cousin, Malcolm, whose dream was to become a pastry chef. The name of the business is a tribute to her great-grandmother whom she never had the opportunity to meet but was an awesome baker in her own right. Sweet as “Bea” Desserts was relaunched in January 2015 when Bria returned home after completing her Bachelors Degree in Fashion Merchandising with a minor in Marketing from Bowling Green University (Ohio). “It started with a request to make a cake for a friend and a post on Facebook” Bria states. “I still work a full-time job as a retail manager but baking is my superpower. I love seeing the vision of my clients come to life.” Hours of Operation Sunday: 11 a.m. – 8 p.m. Monday – Saturday: 10 a.m. – 9 p.m. Facebook: www.facebook.com/sweetasbeadesserts Email: sweetasbeadesserts@gmail.com Phone: 513-713-1616 Since the start of the business, Bria’s creativity continues to soar. What started with cupcakes and simple cake designs has now flourished into beautifully decorated cakes of all kinds. Bria can take anyone’s vision and turn it into a specialized cake or cupcakes designed for the perfect occasion. From children’s themed birthday parties to lavish weddings, the desserts are delicious and customized for any event. Sweet as “Bea” Desserts’ mission is to provide customized and flavorful cakes and treats that brings forth the vision of each client. Bria hopes to one day grow Sweet as “Bea” Desserts into a full-service bakery where she can serve her Cincinnati community. Sweet as “Bea” Desserts can be reached by Facebook, email, call or text.
